

Short description how to get to room 236 in the Neue Aula

(Geschwister-Scholl-Platz/Wilhelmstraße 7)

- Enter the Neue Aula through the main entrance (Wilhelmstraße).
- You then get into a little hall. Pass straight through the little hall and enter the big hall via some stairs and another door.
- In the big hall turn to the right and take the stairs to the third floor. (There is also an escalator.)
- You have arrived at the right floor if you see the sign that leads you to the “Zeicheninstitut”. Do not follow this sign!
- Pass straight through the little hall and go through the door in the left corner.
- You then go down a few stairs.
- The room 236 is on the left side of the corridor. There is a brown couch in front of the room and of course you will also find a conference poster at the entrance.
